

RESOLUTION 17-006

A RESOLUTION THAT CANCELS THE LEWISTON CITY NOVEMBER 7, 2017 MUNICIPAL ELECTION AND CERTIFIES THAT THE NUMBER OF CANDIDATES DOES NOT EXCEED THE NUMBER OF OPEN AT-LARGE MUNICIPAL OFFICES.

WHEREAS, the Lewiston City Council desires to cancel the November 7, 2017 Municipal Election and certifies that the number of candidates does not exceed the number of open at-large municipal offices;

- Pursuant to Utah Code 20A-1-206: A municipal legislative body may cancel an election if: all the candidates, including any eligible write-in candidates have filed.
- Lewiston City has two at-large council seats open for election, and one at-large mayoral position open for election;
- The City Recorder received three declarations of candidacy; one for mayor-Kelly Field, two for council- Ted King and John Morrison.
- Lewiston City has no municipal ballot propositions.
- Lewiston City did not receive any write-in candidates.
- Lewiston City now has three candidates for 2 (two) at-large council seats and 1 (one) at-large mayoral positions.

Therefore be it resolved by the Lewiston City Council:

- The Lewiston City November 7, 2017 election is hereby cancelled.
- The Lewiston City Council certifies there are three at-large (2 council & 1 mayoral) seats, and there are no municipal ballot propositions.
- The following candidates are considered to be elected to office: Kelly Field (mayor), Ted King and John Morrison (council).
- This resolution shall become effective immediately upon passage.
