AUGUST NEWSLETTER 2020

AUGUST 2020

MAYOR'S REPORT

It is now August 2020 and it has been five months since what we considered normal changed. For the most part we have been fortunate in Lewiston and in Cache County as most have just experienced inconvenience. The Covid-19 caseloads have been manageable and the death rate low. My wish is that the trend continues and that we can move to the return of our normal.

As a community we continue to function as much as possible. The services provided by the city and the projects necessary to maintain those services are moving forward as planned. The library and the theater are open. The parks and related facilities are available for use. As you utilize these services please take the necessary precautions to protect yourself and your family.

As I mentioned in the last month's newsletter, we are about to embark on major projects involving the water and sewer systems. We will be meeting with the engineers and financial experts the week of August 3 to formally kick the process off. The hope is to get bids out and to start some of the work this fall. I will use this forum to provide updates to the projects as time moves forward.

You should start to see some building activity in the business park on east Center Street soon. Three projects either have or are in the process of receiving building permits. The road into the park will soon be paved. It is hoped that this development will bring positive development to Lewiston and help to support our city in the years to come.
